Guide to making a Subject Access Request (“SAR”)

1. Introduction

These notes are intended only as a guide to completing the Subject Access Request form, not as a guide to the GDPR itself. Completion of the form is not compulsory but is designed to help you in providing us with the information we need to deal with your request.

The rules on processing of personal data are set out in the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (the “GDPR”).

Who we are (referred to as “We”, “Our”, “Us”):

Your data is held by Insolvency Practitioners Direct Limited, trading as “ipd”, company number 4460757, registered office at Suite 1 Marcus House, Park Hall Business Village, Park Hall Road, Stoke on Trent, ST3 5XA which is a data controller.

Martin Williamson is licensed to act as an Insolvency Practitioner in the UK by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, number 9222 and is a data controller and a data processor.

This form is valid from 8 May 2018, although some aspects may not come into force until 25 May 2018.

2. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

- The right to request a copy of the personal data which we hold about you, subject to any fee specified by law;
- The right to request that we correct any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date free of charge;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time, where consent was the lawful basis for processing the data;
- The right to request that we provide you with your personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable i.e. where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and where the data controller processes the data by automated means);
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable i.e. where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics).

Further details on your personal rights in respect of your data can be obtained at <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-the-general-data-protection-regulation-gdpr/individual-rights/>

3. Our rights

We will provide a copy of the information free of charge, as per the GDPR rules. However, we may charge a ‘reasonable fee’ when a request is manifestly unfounded or excessive, particularly if it is repetitive.

We may also charge a reasonable fee to comply with requests for further copies of the same information. We understand that this does not mean that we can charge for all subsequent access requests.

Where applicable, we will determine the 'reasonable fee' that must be based on our administrative cost of providing the information.

Where requests are manifestly unfounded, excessive and repetitive, we may refuse to act on the request or charge a reasonable administration fee. We will make a decision on this. We must provide information on our decision to the requestor in writing within 30 days and must state how we have reached our decision.

4. Payment

If a fee is to be charged we will notify you of the level of the fee and the reasons for charging it at that level. We will not process a SAR without payment of the requested fee. Please send a cheque or make payment by BACS to our account 20-36-43 30123064. We do not accept credit cards, debit cards, cash, or any other currency. Cheques etc. should be made payable to Insolvency Practitioners Direct Limited.

Applications that do not include the correct fee in an acceptable form will not be processed. Similarly, cheque payments that fail to clear will also result in the application not being processed. We will contact you in these situations.

5. Processing by us

Applications will be processed promptly, but in any event a response will be made within 30 calendar days, as permitted under the provisions of the GDPR, from the date that we accept the properly completed application along with your proof of identity and (where applicable) the requested fee.

An application will not be accepted or processed unless the application is submitted correctly with all relevant information being supplied, proof of identity provided and the correct fee paid.

6. Section 1 – About Yourself

Please give us information about yourself that will assist us in finding the information you require. You should complete this section fully and carefully as the information will be used as the basis for our internal searches.

For your protection, any correspondence that we send you (including any information that we send to you in response to your request) will be sent only to the home address that you give here.

Where you have submitted the request via your legal representatives, you are still required to complete the form in full and provide proof of identity. Our response will be sent to your legal representatives' registered offices.

The information will also help us to confirm your identity (see Note 7).

7. Section 2 – Proof of identity

We have a duty to ensure that the information we process is secure. We will only provide the information relating to you if we are satisfied regarding your identity i.e. that you are entitled to the information. We therefore require you to provide us with reasonable proof of your identity. Examples of the types of identity documents that we will accept are listed under Section 2. Applications that do not include acceptable identification will not be processed, but we will contact you should this be the case.

We do not have to give you any information that might identify any other individual unless that person agrees. If you believe that any information we hold about you may identify another person, you may wish to obtain that person's written consent (to you being given his/her information). That consent should be submitted to us with this application, along with their proof of identity (to the same standard as is required for yourself).

8. Section 3 – Helping us to find the information you want

In order to assist us with our searches, please try to specify the nature of the information that you are seeking and its possible location if known (e.g. who in our organisation was/might be dealing with the matter).

We will not reply to an open-ended request for access to information (e.g. "Give me a copy of all the data you hold on me."). You should be as specific as possible about the information you are requesting.

9. Section 4– Declaration

Please sign and date the application. We are unable to accept applications that have not been signed and dated by the person whose details are supplied in section 1, even if this form has been submitted by a person acting with their authority.

WARNING – attempting to obtain personal data to which you are not entitled may be an offence under the GDPR.

10. Your Checklist

This is a brief checklist to ensure that you have completed the form properly.

11. Submission
